HomeAboutProjectsBlogsContact

This is Latrell

My name is Latrell, (A summary about me and my transition and interest in this new career path)

Contact

Contact Info

Email :

Latrelllddupree@gmail.com

Recent Projects

Back

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What did the user SAY? • "I really liked how organized and easy to navigate the portfolio is." • "The project descriptions are clear and concise, giving me a good understanding of the work done." • "It was frustrating to find the contact information. A dedicated 'Contact Me' button would be helpful." • "The design is visually appealing and reflects a good balance of professionalism and creativity."	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What did the user DO? • Navigation: The user clicked on the main menu items like "Projects," "About Me," and "Contact" to explore the content. • Project Exploration: Engaged with project thumbnails, clicking on specific projects to view detailed descriptions and images. • Contact Attempt: Attempted to find contact information, possibly looking for a dedicated contact form or direct email link. • Social Media Check: Checked for links to social media profiles for additional insights into the portfolio owner's professional presence	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • User Research <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Source 1: Study on effective portfolio design principles. • Source 2: Interviews with hiring managers about what they look for in a portfolio. • Source 3: Analyzing successful portfolio websites for common features. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Define a Purpose Statement <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • "I am creating a personal portfolio website to provide potential employers and collaborators with a comprehensive view of my skills, experiences, and projects. The purpose is to showcase my work in a visually appealing and professional manner, making it easy for visitors to contact me for potential opportunities." • "I'm building a portfolio to showcase my skills, experiences, and projects. The purpose is to make it easy for potential employers and collaborators to reach out." 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Brainstorm Ideas <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Interactive Timeline: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Create an interactive timeline showcasing your professional journey, educational milestones, and key achievements. Users can navigate through different phases of your career. • Video Introduction: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Record a short video introducing yourself and providing an overview of your portfolio. This personal touch can help users connect with you on a more human level. • Portfolio Highlights Reel: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Create a highlights reel that quickly showcases snippets of your best work. This could be a carousel of images or short video clips with captions.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What did the user THINK? • Navigation Thoughts: The user appreciated the clear navigation and logical arrangement of content, making it easy to find relevant information. • Project Evaluation: While exploring projects, the user likely thought about how well the showcased work aligns with their expectations and the skills needed for potential collaboration or employment. • Contact Frustration: If the user struggled to find contact information, they might have thought about the importance of a seamless contact process for potential employers or collaborators. • Visual Impressions: Thoughts might revolve around the overall visual appeal and whether it conveys a professional and creative image, influencing their perception of the portfolio owner.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How did the user FEEL? • Positive Impressions: The user likely felt positive about the portfolio's organization, project descriptions, and visual design. • Engagement: Positive emotions may arise when engaging with well-presented project details, contributing to a sense of connection with the portfolio owner's work. • Frustration (if applicable): Frustration or confusion may have emerged if the user struggled to locate contact information easily. • Professionalism and Creativity: The user's emotions could be influenced by the perceived level of professionalism and creativity in the design and content.	<h3>Create a Conversational Prototype</h3> <h4>Scenario</h4> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • User: Hi! What's your portfolio about? • Portfolio Owner: Hey! It's like my online resume, showcasing my skills and projects for potential collaborations or jobs. • User: Nice! How did you decide on the design? • Portfolio Owner: I researched good portfolio designs for simplicity and professionalism. • User: Can I see it? • Portfolio Owner: Sure! Here's a snapshot of the homepage - clean and straightforward. • [Insert a simplified visual representation of the homepage] • User: Looks good! How do you show your projects? • Portfolio Owner: Each project has a clickable picture leading to a page with more info and pictures. • [Insert a simplified visual representation of a project page] • User: How do I reach out if I'm interested? • Portfolio Owner: Easy! In the "Contact" section, you'll find my email and a form. • [Insert a simplified visual representation of the contact section] • User: Thanks for the walkthrough! It's clear and simple. • Portfolio Owner: No problem! Explore, and if you have questions or thoughts, just let me know. Always open to improvements. 	